Participants	- All 1 st year teaching faculty, 1 st year students Batch 2025-26.
Venue	- Mouje Agar, Tal. Shirol, Dist. Kolhapur
Total No. of Participants	- 99 students

Report of the Event –

In alignment with the NCISM - Ayurpraveshika guidelines for the First Professional BAMS transitional curriculum, a rural house visit was successfully conducted on January 14, 2026 (previously scheduled on 29 November 2025 and postponed due to Election and Model Code of Conduct by the Election Commission of India), at Mouje Agar Village. Under the administrative coordination of Mr. Tone (Prashasak, Mouje Agar Grampanchayat) and the leadership of Principal Dr. P. A. Budruk along with the first-year faculty, 99 students engaged in a comprehensive community outreach program. During the visit, Dr. V. A. Samarai provided expert guidance on utilizing Ayurvedic questionnaires for health assessment, Dr. P. A. Budruk delivered an insightful lecture on the concept of 'JEEVANEYYA', emphasizing the life-promoting principles essential to holistic health and traditional wellness. Mr. S. S. Sathe oversaw the field survey operations.

The field activity involved a systematic family-to-family survey where students applied their theoretical knowledge to real-world scenarios. By interacting directly with the rural population, the students gathered vital data on lifestyle and health patterns through the lens of Ayurveda. This hands-on experience served to bridge the gap between academic study and community medicine, fostering a deeper understanding of social health responsibilities and the practical application of Ahar (diet) and Vihar (lifestyle) assessments in a clinical context.
